A photograph of a whiteboard with a calendar grid at the top. The grid has columns for days of the week and rows for dates. The date 4/30 is circled in red. To the left of the grid, there is a red box with '4/30' written inside. The main body of the whiteboard has handwritten notes in blue and red ink. The notes include a 'FOCUS Q' about comparing governments and education systems, a list of activities for 'Myth Monday', and a section for 'PARENTS' asking to see a worksheet. At the bottom, there is another 'FOCUS Q' about careers and interests. The whiteboard is decorated with a red and white polka-dot border on the right side.
