LA8: Students will continue working in small groups, called literature circles, to read and discuss a book in depth this month. The book reading is paced for in-class participation with the final day of work on December 20.

HW: Reading if the student is behind in class. An email was sent home to all parents further explaining the structure and expectations of literature circles. Please email me if you did not receive the information!

Read180: Independent and small group work will begin this week on Workshop Two: Water Fight.
