Food Ticket Sales – Coleen Alexander
Morning and after school table set up to start next week. Announcement about it will go out Monday and Tuesday and in enews. Because of this late announcement we will not start the selling of tickets until Wednesday of next week.

Please turn in all your receipts in a timely manner.

We will have two visa machines at Showcase. One will be at the auction checkout all evening. One will start at the food ticket table and move to the auction area before the end of the night.

EEF-

Kim Esrig will be helping with this area. Two tables will be set up, one in auction room and one at front of school. Gary Powell and Wayne Parker are leading this area.

Art Gallery – Melanie MacKinnon
Items are still coming in. Gallery will be located in the Library. This is a new area to Showcase. RMS staff seems to be excited and are contributing.

Decorations – Melanie MacKinnon

Big vinyl Showcase sign that was donated by Imagine Graphics will go above the front door. Big Black pointer finger signs will serve as a street sign post, directing people to activities.

Entertainment – Dody Hansen

Volunteer form is in now.

B-Gym looking into risers for stage, Need piano, and would like chairs for performers.

D-Gym will talk to Carol about bleachers, then give info to Nancy and Randy.

Signs directing people to theater will be posted.

ANNOUNCEMENT – Morley Hegstrom and Juan Cuadros

- 1) They have changed the date of the next Activity Night. New date is May 29th. Old date was too close to Showcase.
- 2) A good fit for Roosevelt's new Principle, as defined by Site Counsel, did not come up with a good match when looking at Principle transfer request in the district. This means the job will be posted. Vice Principles and others may apply for job.
- 3) French Immersion parents need to come up with a donation of $30,000 in the next two weeks to be able to ensure keeping Catherine Weibe in her current position. Kim Esrig is making calls to Immersion parents to ask for donations. $30,000 will pay for .83 FTE position.

NEXT PAR MEETING IS FRIDAY May 15th FROM 9-10:30

Please join us 8:45 to 9am for good coffee and conversation with Morley and Juan
